

2700 top retailers are registered with Easyfundraising and will donate to the group of your choice every time you buy something online.

It is easy to sign up and costs you nothing extra - all donations are made by the retailer. No details of what you have bought, nor the individual amounts are made known to BCC.

You will be able to see on your personal statement how much you have raised for BCC and the total amount donated by retailers to BCC so far.

Go to easyfundraising.org.uk then click 'Support a good cause' and type in 'Bournemouth Community Church' and follow the simple instructions to set up an account. You can then search for retailers and get shopping and donating!

Beyond giving generously to the church as a part of being family and in community, giving also breaks the hold of greed and fear around money in our lives. It allows us to give away freely, acknowledging the goodness of God in our lives and playing our part in seeing His Kingdom come!

If you would like to join us in this crucial part of being family at BCC please see below for ways to give.

It is amazing what happens when we start giving and play our part in the ministry of the local church!

Regular Giving

It's easy to set up regular giving online! You can set up regular giving/ standing order to BCC through your online banking in the same way you'd make a one-off payment. Simply select the option to make your gift a regular payment. This goes a long way in helping the church budget more efficiently.

300 Club Giving

Apart from our regular giving, each year we have a special giving fund called the 300 Club for the building of God's Kingdom in our community. If 300 of us can raise £300 that's £90,000 for the kingdom here in Bournemouth. If you'd like to take up the challenge you just need to reference your extra giving as 300Club for it to go towards this fund.

Ways to Give to BCC
